

Your membership in the Twin Rivers Reading Council:

- Supports families through the distribution of books and literacy materials to shelters, schools, and the community.
- Supports children through “Reading Fun Day” in February and literacy bags for foster children in Craven and Pamlico counties.
- Supports writers through the “Young Authors” and “Forever Young” writing programs. The state limits the number of students that can be entered based on the school’s membership in the Twin Rivers Reading Council.
- Supports local educators by offering Continuing Education Credits in reading and providing literacy activities.
- Supports you through local meetings, reduced rates for conferences, author visits, networking, and free resources.

Vision

The Twin Rivers Reading Council advocates the advancement of literacy in the 21st century throughout our global community.

Mission

Through community outreach and the collaboration of educators, businesses, and families, the Twin Rivers Reading Council will promote literacy and a lifelong love of reading.

Who We Are

The Twin Rivers Reading Council is made up of people in Craven and Pamlico counties that are interested in promoting literacy and encouraging a love of reading.

What We Do

The Twin Rivers Reading Council meets periodically throughout the school year to share literacy and reading ideas. We organize fun literacy activities, facilitate youth writing contests, and donate books to local families and children.
